To solidify and showcase the best research in international business relating to this region, the second volume of our AIBSEAR book series with Palgrave McMillan will be published this year which is titled The Rise of Asian Firms: Strengths and Strategies.

The book for next year will be related to the 2014 conference theme and edited by Professors Shige Makino and Daphne Yiu from the Chinese University of Hong Kong. We encourage authors to submit their work to the book series. Papers accepted and presented in the Macao Conference will be assessed and invited for inclusion in the third volume, to be published in 2015.
