About “U”

Active, energetic, respectful toward elderly, willing to work and study with elderly.

Mrs. Margaret MAK

Very active, enthusiastically sharing their opinions and thoughts, and also willing to learn.

Ms. Pui-yi SY, BBA Year 2

Smart, active and innovative.

Mrs. Kit TONG

Easy to get along with, optimistic, but sometimes quite stubborn.

Ms. Selena LAW, BBA Year 1

Generally, teenagers work efficiently, easy to accept new technology, but sometimes they are not considerate enough when taking care of elderly.

Mrs. Yuk-lin CHEUNG

Well-educated, serve the society with passion continuously even after they are retired.

Ms. Cho-man TO, BBA Year 2

Teenagers nowadays do care about elderly. They are willing to contribute their time in volunteer work.

Mrs. Lai-kin YU

Stigmatising is common. Elderly are labelled as “old-fashioned” and “dull”, while teenagers are described as “rude” and “impatient”. In fact, labels are barely illusions. If there is an opportunity for our older adults and teenagers to get along, they will discover that the “real 'U'” is not the “imagined 'U'”!
