

Christ College (Autonomous)
Centre for Social Action
Hosur Road, Bangalore

Building a Harmonious Society through Community-College Partnership

Mr. Johny Joseph, Coordinator
&
Mr. Antony Raju. V, Project Officer

Centre for Social Action, Christ College

OBJECTIVE

To highlight the Processes adopted for College-Community partnerships

Introduction

National Policy on Education 1986 (India):

- Every country develops a system of education, which is contextual to its unique socio- cultural Issues
- Education was seen as instrumental in promoting National progress, responsibility as common citizens, moral values and scientific temperament
- It is also envisaged to achieve the goals of secularism, socialism, democracy, professional ethics and rural development through education

- Also In the Indian way of thinking, a human being is a positive asset and a precious national resource
- To free and nurture such human resource, Human Resource Development strategies for the youth/student community is required
- This will help the youth/student to possess new ideas along with a strong commitment to humane values and to social justice
- All this implies the need for a better education

- The spirit behind this concept of Education was adapted by Christ College and termed as Holistic Education
- Christ College is a premier quality higher education institution catering to 8000 students with 250 teaching faculty implementing holistic education since its start in 1969
- Though holistic education there would be a little but significant contribution towards a humane and just society

METHODS EMPLOYED

1. INSTITUTIONALIZATION OF SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

- Institutionalization of social responsibility activities through Centre for Social Action (CSA)
- Students' Movement for a Humane and Just Society with Child as the Focus
- Social sensitization programs for students and service programmes for marginalized children/communities

2. INSTITUTIONAL INVOLVEMENT

Christ College is building the culture of social responsibility with in the college through:

- Orientation programmes to the faculty and the students
- Orientation programmes to the parents
- Involving the parents and the alumni to raise sponsorships for social initiatives
- Holistic Education Classes
- Social Responsibility projects/assignments within the courses

- Support for Rural Exposure Camps
- Support for student sensitization and service programs
- Appointment of Social Work professionals
- Networking for resource mobilization
- Infrastructure support

3. STUDENTS SENSITISATION PROGRAMMES

- Social Exposure Programs
- Reflect on change possibilities and involvement in development projects
- Formation of core group of volunteers
- Social sensitization programmes to school children
- Articulation & information dissemination on social issues through CSA publications

- Trained team for advocacy
- Organizing National Level Workshops and Seminars on social issues
- Developmental exchange programmes with Norway and other countries

4. COMMUNITY BASED PROJECTS WITH STUDENTS SUPPORT:

- Awareness programs within the community
- Sponsoring and managing marginalized children's development
- Involvement in community empowerment programmes

RESULTS/LEARNINGS:

- Better understanding of social development issues
- Enhanced perspectives and clarity on the role of education institutions to function as civil society organization
- Learnings and insights integrated into academics
- Improvement in institutional knowledge on societal issues
- Alignment of the perspectives-institution & college students
- Emergence of social sensitization/community service programmes

CONCLUSION:

Christ College aims to work with a deep commitment to sensitize college students to develop them into socially responsible citizens

Hence students involved college-community relationships will be constantly built