

CROSS BOARDERS AND REAP BEYOND THE OBVIOUS OUTCOMES

Presented by Jane Szutu Permaul
University of California, Los Angeles
Adjunct Professor, Higher Education
Assistant Vice Chancellor, Emeritus, Student Affairs
jpermaul@saonet.ucla.edu

June 1, 2009, 2nd Asia-Pacific Regional Conference on Service-Learning

Schools and Universities:

Institutional Administration-

Compatibility with institutional mission

Costs

Insurance and Liabilities

Faculty-

Transfer of Knowledge-Research

Pedagogy

Curriculum

Students-

Education and Degrees

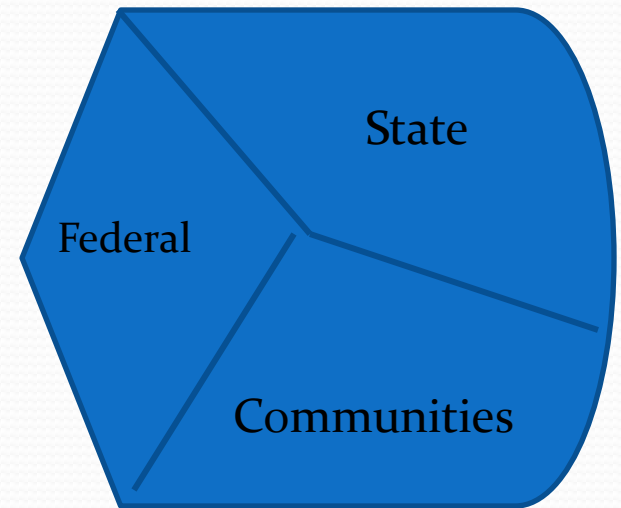

Learning

Career Preparation

Governmental and Public Agencies:

Federal- Veteran's Affairs
Congressional Interests
State- Health and Welfare
Mental Health
State Hospitals
Counties and Cities-
Mental Health
Housing Ordinances

Community Interests:

Residents of neighborhoods

Businesses and other commercial enterprise

Housing

Parks and Recreations

Health Facilities for Mental Health

Schools and universities

BORDER CROSSING

Within INSTITUTIONS
Across INSTITUTIONS

DRIVEN BY

Genuine NEED(S)
COMPATIBILITY with Institutional and Divisional
MISSIONS and OBJECTIVES

Possible Outcomes from Service Learning:

For Governmental Agencies-

- Meeting constituents needs
- Formulation of realistic public policies
- Dialogue with constituents

For Communities and Neighborhoods-

- Serving the communities and neighborhoods
- Sustaining and developing economy and quality of life
- Access to governmental and educational resources
- Human resources development

For Schools and Universities-

- Learning resources for students and faculty
- Facilitating the transfer of knowledge
- Generation of needed future knowledge and work force

CROSS BOARDERS AND REAP BEYOND THE OBVIOUS OUTCOMES

Presented by Jane Szutu Permaul
University of California, Los Angeles
Adjunct Professor, Higher Education
Assistant Vice Chancellor, Emeritus, Student Affairs

jpermaul@saonet.ucla.edu

June 1, 2009, 2nd Asia-Pacific Regional Conference on Service Learning