The recording was taped at Mr Wong's home. Apart from the occasional yelling in the background and some irrelevant data at the middle, the interview is quite good. Mr Wong is a person with an active and outgoing character, he also very proud of his clever which given by his parents, many things say once and see once he will fully memorize, this make him develop his career at early age in Hong Kong, all his job are responsible for writing, he have been working at RTHK and many local newspaper. Mr Wong seems to be happy and open to talk anything about or even apart from his family, so make me not nervous to talk with him.
